

INTRODUCING Jim Reynolds

Jim is the owner of Icon Business Solutions (IBS) based in Milton Keynes and provides business solutions to SME business owners in Milton Keynes and the surrounding areas. He is no stranger to business success having had over 37 years management experience and holding high profile Board Level roles in the corporate world both in the UK and overseas as well as setting up and running his own business.

He has experience of a management buy out and running a multicultural sales and service organisation commuting from Hemel Hempstead to Paris, Milan and Frankfurt on a frequent basis.

Jim has also run a business unit for American owned Multinational Corporation, Rockwell Automation the world's largest integrated controls supplier, which provided an interesting insight to corporate life.

He has a strong understanding for business systems and with his own extensive business experience and intuition coupled with the support from all the IBS advisors worldwide Jim is confident he is able help SMEs in the region achieve their goals and excel in their businesses, as diverse as they may be.

A few things said about Jim:

“Jim has given my business a much needed boost on how to increase profitability – Jim really knows his stuff”.
Managing Director Digital Methods

“Jim is a good tutor and knows his business inside out – he is passionate about how he can improve people's businesses” J Srivalsan, Managing Director Chalky Whites

“Jim provides a structured approach to planning and growing your business”. E Neal, Geodesa Ltd

In his personal time Jim is a Black Belt 4th Dan Ju Jitsu instructor and teaches both adults and juniors at Stantonbury Campus, Milton Keynes. He is also a windsurfing instructor and teaches at Willen Lake in the summer. He says “these are both great pastimes and I now enjoy giving something back to the activities from which I have derived so much fun.”

“Jim is a good tutor and knows his business inside out – he is passionate about how he can improve people's businesses”
